

A dynamic instructional program requires ongoing evaluation, development and improvement in the curriculum.

No course shall be eliminated, added, or reduced without approval of the Board.

New programs and courses of study shall not be acted upon by the Board until the meeting following its presentation by the administration.

The Superintendent or designee shall be apprised of any alteration(s) to the curriculum.